

NATEA - SILICON VALLEY

April 2007 Entrepreneurship Joint Seminar

Topic: Entrepreneurship

Date: Friday, April 6, 2007

Time: 6:30 PM

Location: South Bay Culture Center
1269 Forgewood Ave.
Sunnyvale, CA 94089

Registration: $10 for members,
$12 for non-members
Dinner box will be reserved by RSVP

Host: TSA-NC and NATEA-SV Entrepreneurship SIG

RSVP: Hsing-Yi Jan <hsingyi@gmail.com>

Abstract

Dr. Solt will discuss why new ventures started by Asian Americans can be more successful, what a good business plan consists of, and the characteristics of entrepreneur that make a successful new venture. He will also give in-depth analysis of several entrepreneurs and their new ventures.

Speaker's Bio

Dr. Michael E. Solt is Associate Dean of Lucas Graduate School of Business and Professor of Finance at San Jose State University (SJSU), where he teaches new venture finance and international finance. Dr. Solt was also visiting professor to France, Singapore, and China. He is a board member of SJSU Foundation and Yakima Filters, Inc., and is involved with SJSU's Silicon Valley Center for Entrepreneurship. Dr. Solt received his B.S. in Finance from Ohio State University, and Doctor of Business Administration in Finance from Indiana University.